

Training courses for schools 2017-2018

Warwickshire Schools' Library Service runs courses at its premises in Montague Road, Warwick, and is also pleased to offer the following which can be booked by individual schools:

Course title	Detail	£ subs	£ non-subs
Making the most of SLS	How to use resources in school, from ordering boxes through to classroom or library use. One hour talk / lecture format.	Free	£50 (deducted from a new full sub)
Making the most of Accelerated Reader	Embedding AR in your school. Using the SLS toolkit - which will be left with school along with other resources at the end of session. 2-hour whole school session.	£150	£200
Promoting a reading school	Whole school reading promotion, activities, displays, book stock development. One hour talk / lecture format.	£100	£150
Help! I'm running the library	A must for staff who have suddenly been given responsibility for the library or are new to school / need a refresher. 2-hour workshop .	£150	£200
Reading for pleasure unpacked	How to encourage reading for pleasure across school. Can be tailored to specific KS. 2-hour workshop including 50 books that will be lent to school for a term.	£150	£200
Reading for all - diversity	Introducing books reflecting our rich and diverse society. How to embrace inclusion in all aspects of the curriculum as well as in the school library. Can be tailored to specific KS. 2-hour workshop .	£150	£200
Reading pictures	Working with picture books in EYFS and/ or KS1. Can also be used for older children too in the context of descriptive writing. 2-hour workshop .	£150	£200
Pupil Librarian training	For up to 12 students plus a member of staff. Tailored to school requirements. 2 hour session.	c£100 By arrangement	c£150 By arrangement
Effective information skills	For pupils from first steps in Reception through to sixth form. How to find information effectively in books and online. Length and cost dependent on KS of pupils. Can be a course over several weeks.	By arrangement	By arrangement

- All the above courses for staff can be offered in school for a single group of staff or for others across an academy trust or cluster
- Workshops are for a maximum of 30 staff or as stated for pupils. Other courses can be for any number, only limited by the size of your room!
- We are happy to run courses on reading and library-related subjects not mentioned above, or in relation to a specific curriculum subject. Just ask us.

Do contact us: 01926 413461 / 413462 email: schoolslibraryservice@warwickshire.gov.uk